

Revelation 8:2-11:18
Revelation – Till the Bridegroom Returns
Message – Seven Trumpets and a Warning to the World
October 5, 2025
Fifth Reformed Church
Sam Eldersveld

Seven Trumpets

- These trumpet blasts are a _____ to the world about God’s coming judgement.
- In _____, there are plagues of darkness, water turned into blood, and hail.

Rev. 9:20-21

- Similar to Pharoah, there were plenty of people who had the opportunity to repent, yet _____ to do so.

What does lead to repentance?

The Scroll

- The scroll is the _____.
- Only the slain lamb makes the gospel _____, so only the slain lamb can _____ the scroll.
- The sourness that John experienced is _____ the gospel.
- We experience the sourness, witnessing to the gospel, with a joyful heart because we believe it leads others to _____.
- The gospel is too good not to _____, the gospel is too good not to _____.

Repentance

Revelation 11:13

- After God’s judgement and warning signs to Pharoah, Pharoah _____ repent.
- After the first 6 warning signs by the angels sounding their trumpet, there was ___ repentance.
- After the sacrificial lamb opened the scroll, the gospel was given to John, received by him, and proclaimed to the world, _____.
- Our witness is in _____ and deed
- God is the _____. How are you doing in your witness of the sacrificial lamb who died for the world?

How will you respond to God’s word today?

Reflection Questions

1. Why would God tie in the Exodus story in these warnings?
2. The scroll is a key symbol, what’s with the honey and sourness?
3. Repentance happened after a witness to the gospel, how are you doing in your witness?
4. Read Rev. 11:15-18 and describe how this impacts you today
5. How is God getting your attention?
6. What is God saying to you?
7. What are you going to do about it?